

Party Designs

Everybody loves a party. Parties are wonderful occasions where people get together, celebrate and have a great time... It could be for an engagement, a wedding, a shower, a new baby, a birthday or an anniversary. Parties can be organized around holiday themes like Halloween or Christmas. A party may be celebrated for no reason whatsoever, except that people just feel like having a party!! Parties can involve a sit down dinner or a buffet....Parties can be for events, major or minor!

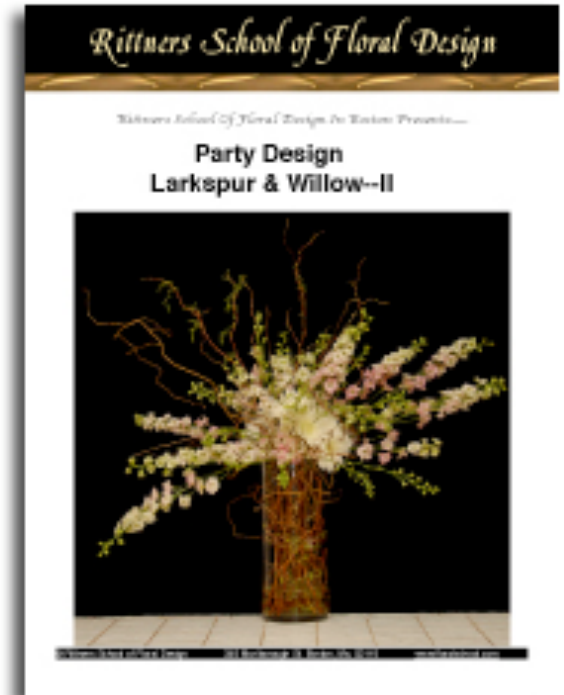

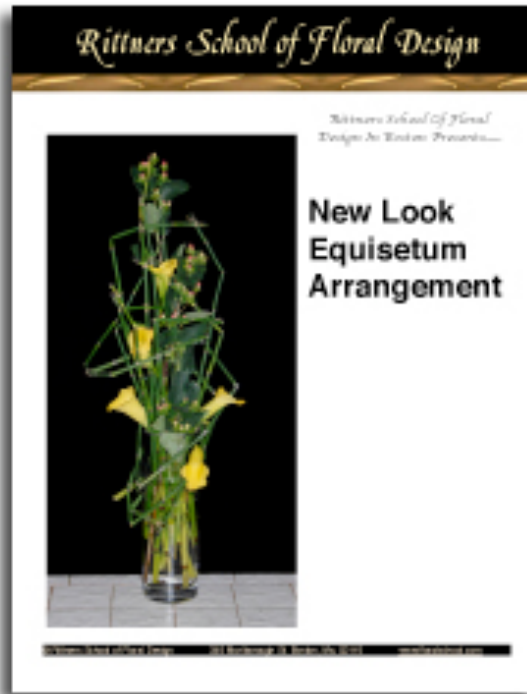

For this section we are defining “Party Designs” as arrangements that we think are kind of cool, that would provide that “additional touch of something special” to an event or occasion.....

Keep in mind that designs listed under “Centerpieces,” “Line Arrangements,” and designs listed as “Seasonal” could also be considered to be party floral art as well.....
